Brixton Reel Film Festival 2015

Looking for Love (15) + Q&A

Award-winning UK filmmaker Menelik Shabazz returns to Brixton Reel with this incisive and ultimately inspiring investigation into experiences of love and romance in the UK African-Caribbean communities. On this frank and often funny journey real people talk about their lives from love to sex. We learn about frustration, pain and healing, breaking with the past and coping with love in a rapidly changing world. Voices include Mr Cee, Donna Spence and comedian Glenda Jaxson.

Followed by Q&A with Menelik Shabazz.

Saturday 14 November | 6:00pm
